

Webinar: Fathers matter, too! Supporting men engagement in child's care and development

Engaging Men in Nurturing Care Initiative

May 16th, 2024

MY DAD'S JOURNEY

Why do we focus on men engagement in young child's caregiving?

EMiNC: Approach and Intervention

ITALY
PORTUGAL
SPAIN

Multi-stakeholder
Multi-level intervention
Multi-sector collaboration

Championing cities:
Naples, Coimbra,
Barcelona

Building a growing narrative on EMiNC at national and European level

eminc Engaging Men in Nurturing Care

Panelists:

ITALY

Giorgio Tamburlini, Chairperson, Centro per la Salute del Bambino

Annina Lubbock, consultant, Centro per la Salute del Bambino

PORTUGAL

Tatiana Moura, Main Researcher and Coordinator of the Observatory of Masculinities.pt

Marta Mascarenhas, Researcher at Observatory of Masculinities.pt

SPAIN

Heinrich Geldschläger, Psychologist and psychotherapist, Director of Research and International Projects at Conexus Association

OUR QUESTS:

What policies matter for increased men engagement in child caregiving? Is current policy formulation enough?

What hinders men engagement in sharing caregiving?

What are effective ways to influence fathers' caregiving practices at home?

What are effective ways to influence practices in early childhood services across different professions?

Country perspectives

Portugal
Italy
Spain

Reflections on challenges and priorities

Italy
Portugal
Spain

What next in 2024?

Webinar – June 12th: *What does father involvement in child development and care mean? From concepts to data

Compendium of effective programs on engaging men in caregiving

State of Fathers in Italy, Portugal and Spain 2024 and a cross-country analysis: the State of Fathers in South Europe report in 2024.

Thank you!

Mihaela Ionescu

Program Director / ISSA

mionescu@issa.nl

www.issa.nl

